Build brand equity with highly engaged listeners

Podcasts are a growth medium with more people listening now than ever before. Take advantage of this medium by sponsoring The Woodworking Network Podcast with Will Sampson. Since its inception in early 2020, we have grown our niche audience of highly engaged listeners, averaging more than 5,000 unique individuals who have tuned in. This brand loyalty is unmatched and sponsorship is the perfect way to build your own brand equity with this captive and engaged audience.

Exclusive Podcast Sponsorship includes:

- An introductory sponsor mention, 30-second message in the middle of the podcast curated by Will and a sponsor mention at the conclusion.
- A landing page on WoodworkingNetwork.com with sponsor logo and link.
- A monthly email with sponsor logo and link to Woodworking Network's full digital woodworking audience of 40,000 plus.
- Social channel postings with your sponsorship link on Facebook (50k followers), Twitter (19.1k followers), LinkedIn (6.5k followers), Instagram (7k followers), and YouTube (4.8k subscribers).
- Analytics delivered monthly to each sponsor.
- A link will be provided to the sponsor to promote through their digital platforms.
- Woodworking Network will promote using its website, print magazines, e-newsletters and social channels, all providing exposure for your sponsorship. The podcast episodes are also automatically delivered to subscribers from podcast channels like Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Stitcher, Google Podcasts, etc.

Take advantage of a sponsorship with extensive reach to the professional woodworker as they consume this valuable, evergreen content.
