

Case Study Alert

Convert prospects into customers by telling your success stories

A case study can be the difference between a prospective customer choosing your business over your competitors'. Now might be the time to put your customer success content in front of the Woodworking Network audience with a Case Study Email Alert.

Hubspot indicates buyers wait until they are 60% through the purchasing process before they talk to a sales person, so it is essential you share your customer success stories and expose your brand reputation.

Our designed template makes it turn-key for getting your case study in the hands of more than 35,000 woodworking professionals, your customers.

What's included:

- One case study alert email.
- Set-up of email in designed template by our staff.
- Delivery to 35,000+ professional woodworkers.
- Supplied analytics report of performance, including number delivered, number opened and clicks/click-thru rate.

It's simple. You provide the elements and we do the work.

The screenshot shows a case study email alert template. At the top, it says "Woodworking Network Case Studies" with a magnifying glass and pencil icon. Below that is the date "July 10, 2020" and a "Company name" logo. The main content area features a photo of a building under construction with the headline "Examining the use of various types of timber in new construction". Below the photo is a "Read Full Version" button. At the bottom, there is a "Company name" logo, the website "companyname.com", and a "Brief company description" paragraph. The footer includes "Woodworking Network" and contact information.
